

November 2025

All Saints Year C

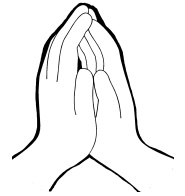

Bishop Paul McAleenan

Working with Deaf, Deafblind and Hard of Hearing people of all ages, to facilitate and enable them to participate fully in the life of the Church, sharing their own gifts.

During November we remember all the people around the world who died, our family, our friends and our neighbours. We thank God for their lives and together we pray for their souls.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Are you coming to Mass on Sunday 2nd November?

Please write the names of your family and friends that have died on the purple sheet so we can remember them at Mass. If you cannot join us you can text us the names so we can pray for them too.

Revelation 7:2-4, 9-141 John 3:1-3*Matthew 5:1-12

Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the hill and sat down. His disciples sat around him. Jesus began to teach the people: "The people that are poor in spirit, they will be blessed, because the kingdom of heaven belongs to them. The people that are gentle, they will be blessed, because they will receive everything from the Lord. The people that mourn, they will be blessed, because God will comfort them. The people that want justice, they will be blessed, because God will satisfy them. The people that are merciful, they will be blessed, because God will be merciful to them. The people that are pure in heart, they will be blessed, because they will see God. The people that want to make peace, they will be blessed, because they will become children of God. The people that want to do good things but suffer, they will be blessed, because the kingdom of heaven belongs to them. If you suffer because other people persecute you, hurt you and criticise you because you follow my name, you will be blessed. Rejoice with me, because I will give you a great reward in heaven. This is what happened in the past when people treated the prophets badly."
